III. Story of Recovery

Deion Wilson, community advocate, who is in active recovery shared his history and the impact addiction has had on him. More specifically, Mr. Wilson shared his experience regarding the correctional and judicial system.

IV. Concept Mapping Update

Ms. Mary Kane, President of Concept Systems, Inc., provided an extensive update on the results of the four statewide community forums. The presentation focused on the Consortium's committee structure, which include: access & treatment; changing perceptions & stigma; corrections & law enforcement; data & policy; education & prevention; and family & community readiness. Ms. Kane informed the Consortium that much of the success of the community forums were rooted in the strong community buy-in and partnership with interested parties. Full executive summary of the concept mapping update can be made available by contacting Consortium staff.

V. Review Draft Report

The Lt. Governor provided an overview of the initial, embargoed draft report. Ms. Romero assisted with providing the Consortium details on each of the recommendations and the specific committees that would be responsible for the work. As mentioned, an official press conference is to be scheduled to announce the release of the report. Specific time and location are to be determined.

VI. Public Comment

Members of the public provided comment and brought forth any issues they felt needed immediate attention

VII. Conclusion and Next Meeting

The Consortium selected June 8, specific location to be determined, at 11:00A to be the next meeting date.
